Inspired by Moroccan Dreams, AF Creates a Chic Home Bar

Dreamy, starry nights in Morocco were the inspiration for this fabulously stylish home bar design in Newport Coast, CA. The husband requested fine craftsmanship, and the wife wanted something “chic.” The result was this beautiful hand-crafted home bar, fabricated in solid walnut with a walnut burl veneer trim.

Working in sync with designer Wendi Young of Carrido-Young Design, Inc., Architectural Furnishings by Tempo (AF) created an atmosphere both balmy and elegant. The bar features luxurious pillowed walnut panels in a Moroccan star shape, each floating on backlit onyx panel. The star motif illuminates the center display niche, which is encircled by bowed hand-carved moldings. Handsome paneling surrounds the bar's four plasma TVs.

AF installed its beautiful Tangier Collection cabinet doors at the bar's side cabinetry, satisfying both the husband and wife with architecturally pure craftsmanship and exceptionally artistic style.
